The licenses describe this right of use and the basic license cover on computer and one website or app.

If you need to instal the font on several computer in the same place you need several license: contact us in this case.

If you have to give your client a file that need the font, he has to buy a license too.

Format

For desktop we provide our fonts in .otf or .ttf (variable) format.

Webfonts are deliver in .woff2 format and/or Base64.

What you buy

When you purchase one of our font, you buy the right of use of the font. The font is never the property of the user. The licenses describe this right of use and the basic license cover one computer and one website.

The purchase gives you 2 days to download a folder that include the license file, the font in .otf or .ttf (variable) format and a web version encoded in .Woff2 and/or Base64.

The font and licences are nonreturnable and nonrefundable.

All in one license

When you purchase one of our font, you download a folder that include a desktop version and a web version of the font. It's a pack. The licenses include the use on

1 desktop

1 website with 0-50k views/per month

1 app with 0-50k downloads

1 ePub with 0-50k downloads

Massive use

Get in touch if the limit are exceeded or if you know in a better way the future use of the fonts you will purchased, we can provide you a quote. We plan a quarterly update of the page view and downloads.

Variable fonts

Nowadays Adobe trilogy, Sketch and modern browser allow the use of variable fonts. We believe in that new format and stay tuned to see it grown-up into softwares.

Printer

When you provide a .pdf the font is automatically encapsulated in the file but sometime you need to give your source file with the font. When it is for a quick use for your printer, of course you can give him the font. Just make sure he delete it afterward.

Students

Our trial version can be downloaded for student projet. You just need to create an account. It's not an obligation but like we love to see how our fonts are used you can credit the font and Pizza Typefaces.

Modify

Designing a font is cool but modify one is not. We worked hard to provide you these fonts, it is forbidden to modify them. Please respect our typefaces with love.
